GRADES K - 8

Violations of the Dress Code – Apparent violations of the CCA Dress Code will be reported to the administration for disciplinary action.

VIOLATIONS OF THE DRESS CODE

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

A first offense requires the administrator to notify the students' parent or guardian. This is usually done by letter.

A repeated offense requires the administrator to bar the offender from class until the issue is resolved with the parent or guardian.

Repeated offenses will involve disciplinary action.

MIDDLE SCHOOL

First Violation – Warning Letter sent home.

Second Violation – Phone call home and detention. (Violation for same offenses or article of clothing.)

Third Violation – Conference with Administrator and 3 days of after school detention.

*Repeated Violations – submitted to school board and possible expulsion.

K-8 Dress Code Policies
